"For we have come to see that segregation is not only sociologically untenable, it is not only politically unsound, it is morally wrong and sinful. Segregation is a cancer in the body politic, which must be removed before our democratic health can be realized." - Martin Luther King, Jr.

Applause erupted throughout Cobo Arena in Detroit, as 25,000 people reacted to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s demand for an end to various forms of segregation.

The speech was given nearly 60 years ago and gave Detroiters a pre-view of his famous "I Have a Dream" speech. It also followed by the Detroit Council for Human Rights and attended by over 125,000 people.

"Segregation is wrong because it is nothing, but a new form of slavery covered up with certain niceties of complexity. Segregation is wrong because it is a system of adultery perpetuated by an illicit intercourse between injustice and immorality. And in Birmingham, Alabama, and all over the South and all over the nation, we are simply saying that we will no longer sell our birthright of freedom for a mess of segregated pottage," King said.

Reminders of our birthright of freedom will be given through a series of events scheduled on Jan. 16.
